In great spirits and with a strong clear voice, he called to say he wanted you to all know you are in his prayers and he knows the Lord will bless you for all the good that you do.

Additional Thoughts from of Saint Teresa of Calcutta:

“We must never think any one is indispensable. God has His ways and means. God may allow everything to go upside down in the hands of a very talented and capable person. Unless the work is interwoven with love, it is useless. God will not ask that person how many books he has read but God will ask him if he has done his best for the love of him.”

Wed 7/10 Saint of the Day St Knud

He was born in Denmark, Nephew of King Knud of England and King of Denmark as Knud IV. He married Adela of Belgium and spread the gospel through the kingdom. He tried to lay claim to England but was defeated. He, his brother and 17 others were murdered along with 17 others, kneeling at an altar after confession.

Thurs. 7/11 Memorial of Saint Benedict

Many know he was trained in Rome and found the city “unacceptable”, leaving he became a hermit. Many associate his name with Subiaco, the place where he established the Abbey of Monte Cassino. Eventually he came to define much of what is called Western Monastic Life. Did you know he left there for a while? He was asked to another monastery, where he was so strict they tried to poison him! The orientation of his monastic life, “has the sole objective of existence is the search for God. Prefer nothing to the love of Christ.”

There is much to be read on his life and his teachings.
